Head-Start Scholarship Requirements

Scholarship Information

As a high school senior who has taken at least one academic year of culinary classes in high school or has participated for at least one academic year in a culinary related organization (ProStart, C-CAP, SkillsUSA or FCCLA), you have proven your interest in the food service industry. Recognizing the motivation and potential you have already shown, Culinary Institute of Virginia (CIV) has a $2,000 scholarship opportunity especially for you.

Scholarship awards will be distributed evenly each semester over the length of the program. Scholarship awards can be applied only toward tuition and fees. Students must be enrolled and attending CIV prior to October 1, 2016.

Application Requirements

- Completed one academic year of culinary classes in high school or be an active participant of ProStart, C-CAP, SkillsUSA or FCCLA for at least one academic year.
- Submit a completed scholarship application (see reverse) and essay. Your essay should be based on one of the following two topics, and should be approximately 500 words in length:
 - Selection 1: Describe your favorite restaurant. What makes eating there a good experience? Evaluate the customer service, the menu, the quality of the food, the presentation of the food and what makes the customer want to return.
 - Selection 2: What is the difference between a good cook and a chef? Which one will you be and why? Describe your favorite meal to cook and what makes it special.
- Complete an Application to the Culinary Institute of Virginia, with an expected start date in the Fall of 2016.
